WELCOME

The AGC 2019 Committee is proud to present the Australasian Groundwater Conference in Brisbane Queensland, 24-27 November 2019.

This conference promises to be an exciting event filled with informative presentations, entertaining networking events and stunning field trips exploring the sights and sounds that this sub-tropical dynamic region has to offer.

The AGC 2019 will feature a stimulating technical program around the theme of “Groundwater in a Changing World” that covers a broad range of applications to resources, infrastructure and environment. The program will include stimulating plenary speakers, engaging panel discussions and enticing social events.

We are looking forward to welcoming groundwater researchers, industry professionals and policy development specialists to this unique event.

We are creating opportunities for delegates to share their experiences, inform best practice, and identify the steps they can take to bring about lasting improvements to the management of our vital groundwater resources.

Our hard working volunteer organisational team encourages you to sponsor the conference and look forward to seeing you in Brisbane in 2019.

Professor Jim Underschultz
Chairperson AGC2019

CONFERENCES HOSTS

PROUDLY PRESENTED BY

The National Centre for Groundwater Research and Training (NCGRT) and the International Association of Hydrogeologists (IAH) Queensland Chapter are hosting the Australasian Groundwater Conference in Brisbane Queensland, 24-27 November 2019.
This conference is an opportunity to participate in a discussion on how groundwater resources can be managed in a changing world.
Venue

The 2019 Australasian Groundwater Conference will be located on the beautiful Brisbane Southbank precinct.

The conference venue is the Brisbane Exhibition and Convention Centre (BCEC), located at the epicentre of Brisbane’s riverside cultural and entertainment attractions. It is home to Queensland’s major cultural attractions including Australia’s newest and largest Gallery of Modern Art, state opera companies, performing arts theatres and symphony orchestras. The precinct is an arts mecca for visitors and provides delegates with a unique meeting experience encompassing culture and entertainment within a smart business environment.
Delegate Profile

The AGC attracts 350+ delegates, including CEO's, Senior Managers, Academics, Engineers, Hydrogeologists, Research Scientists, Professionals, Early-Mid Career and Career Scientists.

Delegate survey feedback from the 2017 AGC (Sydney)

90% of delegates would recommend the AGC to others

75% of delegates attended all social events and found them highly valuable for business development

85% of delegates ranked the AGC Excellent or Great!
