

Groundwater in a Changing World Panel

Dr Len Drury

Partner at Aqua Rock Konsultants

Dr Drury has worked in government for 14 years and 35 years as an international consultant. He has worked on major urban, village, refugee and irrigation water supplies; mining, environmental and litigation projects in 50 countries within South-east, South and Central Asia, the Pacific, Africa, Middle East, the Americas, United Kingdom and all states of Australia. Clients include private, government, bilateral agencies (AusAID), lending institutions (ADB, World Bank) and religious organisations.